

Dear Jo

Thank you so much for your reading - it is rather an intriguing reading! I like how you have picked up on a change in my career - it is something that I have been considering. I am thinking of taking up some hobbies to broaden my horizons mentally/physically as being a Virgo, I have a lot of unspent energy! I am hoping one of these pursued hobbies may lead to something more that I will enjoy.

Kindest regards, Victoria :)

Thank you so much for this reading - it is so accurate! Its great that you have picked up that me and partner have been together since 2003 and things have changed in the past 3 years....The way we loved each other has changed and I really want that back. You're right, the ex is just a crutch for my emotions at the moment, and one which I must get rid of. He hasn't changed really and probably never will...He likes the fact that I am 'calling on him' at the moment. I have felt really bad about what I have been doing - I don't know if you can pick up on it or not, but nothing sexual has happened between me and my ex. Will this tryst between us be kept silent as I know it would hurt my husband so much if he knew and wouldn't help our 'building blocks'?

I want to be a stronger mind again Jo and yes I do want more independence as I miss it so much!!

Hi Jo,

Thank you for the reading again. You are so right with you intuition, I have been distancing myself from him alot lately, not even wanting to talk to him. I felt he was leading me up the garden path, leaving me hanging on a thread while he enjoys he's single life I also think he wants the family life when it suits him and cannot commit to it. Just a waste of time. Have I understood the reading right in saying, the decisions I may have to make is whether I want him back? Or he wants to come back? I get the impression with him that it is gearing towards that way, but then again, I dont understand him o know him anymore.

thanks again, alot of food for thought On the job front I had a fab interview in banking, went grat, should hear from them in the next couple of weeks so fingers crossed!

Hey Jo,

I really needed to tell you something that I found out this week, it goes back to one of my face to face readings we had & some of your predictions that have just come to light, you prob cant remember as you do so many!

I found out that the woman he is having an affair with is in fact loaded on loads of money & has a really good job for NIKE in the city, you had said he is only with her to benefit himself in some way, ive also seen a photo of her & I know you were right, they're would be know way he would've been attracted to her by her looks, it is def the money & the status. How shallow & immature is he???

Anyway, thought id let you know, that you were spot on

Hope your ok xxxx

Anyway, hope you are well, and of course you were right, the man is back and situation normal since end August. I expect you will be right all the way along and at some point we will end up together, but as long as I keep worrying it will keep you in business, so no doubt I'll be whistling you up in the months to come for an update.

Hi Jo,

I would like to thank you for this evening's reading, i was on a downer most of the week but feel much better after chatting to you.

When friends and people cross my path I will be more aware and I will remember you advice from now. I use to think you only suffer from a broken heart if you have been in lovebut I have never been in love with a guy. but I have had my heart broken 3 times by friends.

I came across this quote 'men kick friendship around like a football it doesn't seem to crackbut women treat friendship like glass and it falls to pieces.' how true!! I will let you know how I get on after a few months and I hope to be in a better place emotionally.

Thanks again Jo I think your brill

Hi Joanna,

Hope your well. I just wanted to express my thanks for the very deep and accurate reading you provided me with this week. Although I longed for answers, I really was not expecting that!. As I read your email I could not believe how you managed to pick up on practically all the things I have been feeling and going through recently.

This week I heard the news that my ex had got married, and although our relationship ended years ago, it seemed to bring back all my feelings for him which I thought I had got over a long time ago. I started to want him back in my life, which I know is so wrong on all levels! To be honest he probably doesn't even remember me!

You are right in that I am longing for long term commitment now, and the fact that I may find this from this month onwards has given me faith. Thank you for this. I think my main concern was that nothing since had felt as 'right' as that relationship did from my point of view.

The emotional struggles part was so correct as I am being advised that I should settle down now, and although I'm ready I don't feel I can do this with just anyone! Hence the going round in circles as you stated.

Hopefully this new relationship will bring that, however it comes about.

Thank you so much once again, I now know who to turn to when searching for answers!

Best Wishes

Suki

Hi Jo

Thank you so much for taking the time to reply. It is really appreciated. I have taken on board what you have said. It was a funny thing because a close friend of mine is always saying I should be with Ray where as I am happy for him to be my friend for life. That way I wont ever lose him and I can always keep him close. She said if you were any good you would say, 'oh my God, you two should be together'. I laughed when she said it, and was absolutely gob smacked when you actually did say that, as you can imagine, which is why I felt the need to email you for a little confirmation of what you saw. As a result, my friend will now be calling you for an appointment too lol!

So with many thanks. Hope you and your family have a lovely weekend.

Hi Jo!

I've listened to you many times on Psychic & Soul tv - particularly enjoyed yours and Lesley's advice to everyone about the Law of Attraction a couple of nights ago.

Blessings to you for the good work and positive energy you send out to everyone.

Blessings and love and light, Samantha x

Hi Jo,

Thank you for the reading - will take that on board.

Yes agree - it makes sense.

I did see it like that at the very beginning - using the photos as characters - story may be fiction, but the characters are real spirits.

Still got lots to learn. May end up re-doing everything - getting a better camera - have thought about making videos - learning software packages to best enhance the images - and would love some of the characters on ornaments.

At the moment, the only thing I'm interested in is my forest folk tarot cards - love them!

Thanks again and hope you enjoy the rest of your weekend.

And looking forward to Psychic & Soul's return too.

Blessings, Sam x

Hi Jo,

Thank you for the reading; it has blown me away! I will probably spend my evening reading then re reading it. The accuracy is incredible and fingers crossed the end is in sight.

look forward to seeing you on the 9th.

Best wishes

Sally.

Hi Jo,

Hope you are well, keeping busy!

Quick recap since I met you, Had three interviews so far, one looks positive, as per feedback from client, but still a relatively small company, little bigger than where I was previously. Not the large corporate I may be hoping for. Maybe it's moving little too fast for me, but I still like get stuck in asap.

On the love side, Reena still making plans for us 6 months ahead for her big family holiday, I am not sure we will last that long. Again she busy helping her sister catering business all weekends throughout August and September, even weekdays, Do I give her time she wants, but this is the time we should be spending together before making any serious commitment. I just don't know what to do about this? If I make a little hint about this, she thinks I am moaning again. I barely had any time with her alone for the last month or so.

Hope you take me to the right direction for this.

Take care

Rahul

Thankyou Jo, That is pretty spot on, I am just in the process now of ending my marriage of 9 years which has been hell from the start and he is very dominating. I will be requesting another reading next week. Mary x

Thank you so much Joanna, I really appreciate that. I'm so glad I found you I really am. I was praying for guidance and believe I was guided to you. X

Dear Jo,

You are spot on !

The reason why I decided to contact you was because of my relationship with my husband and all the issues that are coming with that. At the moment we are not living together that has been since last year and as you can imagine it ahs been very distressful for me and that was because of money and work .We go in waves, sometimes it is fine and sometimes it is not and I feel I don't have a big commitment from him to have a family an house together and I have also missed the attention that a good relationship should have.

Then I met this other man, nothing serious at the moment -it was just a bit of fun for both of us. He lives far away m but we work for the same company . I thought that it was just pure fun and attraction - and quite honestly I need that !We both work for the same company ,even if we are far away and we want to be very careful and not have anybody to find out.

That's why I contacted you .I'm intrigued about this new thing and i'm aware that it is impossible , but when i received an email from him this morning i was very happy and maybe i'm just tired of how things with my husband are , even if I do not think it is right to finish everything now .

And then I was surfing the web and I bumped into your website and here I am.

Best , Martina

hi again Jo!

its Lyz!

how are you?

I thought i would keep in touch with you and let you know im still in ibiza, sadly coming home next week. but iv had a truely amazing time, im sad to leave but im happy because its made me realise a lot about myself and what i want for my future.

it is very weird though that i think you were right when you told me about the man i was going to meet, i was kind of seeing someone out here and then this guy which you described to a tee came along...dark hair, had an accent and was nothing that id really go for before..but randomly we both want the exact same things in life. were really good friends, weve ended up getting really close, sadly he is going home tomorrow but he only lives 40 minutes away from me. you mentioned the man i would meet was quite quiet, caring etc..thats him all over. nothing serious has been going on between us, but theres a spark there. :) i am smitten!

I hope you are well Jo, again you proved to be right!! (i hope anyway lol)

you said id love it over here, and i have but now its time to be realistic and save for my future, coz what youve said to me im goign to make it happen x

keep in touch

cheers Jo

Hey Jo

I also just wanted to say that after the reading I really thought about a lot of the things you said and you were spot on with so much and I think you really understood me as a person so just wanted to say thank you for a wonderful reading.

Thanks
Lena

Thanks Jo,

The reading did indeed pick up on the two themes that are frustrating me - finances and love. I have sensed a man who seems to be fixated with me someone from my past, I know that soon he will make contact and this will be the most romantic period of my life.

I have been frustrated and stressed at work a lot in 2010 sometimes I feel I am not good enough at what I do - Bookkeeping, but deep down I know I am respected and liked at this workplace. I also write children's stories in my spare time and if I could get them published it would be a lifetime achievement for me and I feel It would bring some form of closure to me as I feel I underachieved at school and was considered by my peers to be a bit of a wierd loner.

many thanks

Kellie x

Hi Jo

Thanks for sending me the recording, I will have a little listen later...

Thought I would give you a quick update, when we were talking yesterday you said that I would be going on a "date" with the cancerian within in the next week, when I got home after my reading there was an email asking me to go for a drink with him!! Have arranged it for next week :-)) so well done, spot on.

Thanks for the reading, it was really positive.

Take Care

Hi Jo

I just wanted to say thank you so so very much for your time last night. We all had a brilliant evening and you were the star of the show!!! It was lovely to meet you and I hope to see you really soon at Sharon's party.

Karen x x x

Hi Jo, thanks for the reading. I'm looking forward to a calmer year that's for sure. 2010 was a stressful year at times! although I think this year will have it's stresses.....

Yep you were right about the part time, i returned to part time work in Nov, getting that balance. Funny how you mention 'your' stuff again, that came up last year too. Can't see the wood for the trees with that one though at the moment.

So much of your reading rang true, I really have as corny as it sounds started to find myself and feel far more confident in many ways.

Relationship with husband is still rocky if not more difficult than a year ago, the old scorpio/virgo combo. I still see the Taurus on occasion.....I know you won't judge. Perhaps I should have mentioned that at the start. May have helped you, sorry.

And the headaches.....how do you do it??!

regards, Jo x

Hello Jo,

Thank you for your reading. It has, indeed, helped me to make up my mind and I'm a whole lot more positive about it all now. I just needed someone to say that going private isn't going to be a waste of money, or that I just might have gotten a cancellation on the NHS before my op date. In other words, I needed to feel that my guardian angel was on the same wavelength that I am. And you've helped me with that.

Such relief, you can almost taste it!

Once again, thank you.

Jacqui

Hi Joe

You answered a text message for me the other day, you were spot on about the course that I will be doing in the spring of next year....something completely different.

Thank you...

xx

OMG.. You are so right about everything in the reading am speechless... apart from the decision I have to make about work/home, I know at the moment I'm not happy work wise but will be starting something new in April which hopefully will lead to work opportunities. At home cannot be myself, dying to break free but stuck at the moment because of my financial situation, I'm hoping that the project i start in April if all goes well will get me out of this.

Thank you Jo
Best wishes xx
I look forward to having telephone reading soon....

Hi Jo

Thanks for the newsletter, look forward to the next one.

I must say after Andrew and I had our last reading with you in January a number of things you predicted have already happened.

Andrew has finally broken it off with his girlfriend (you said she wasn't right for him) and he is now in a relationship with this other girl you mentioned. With regard to Ian, you said he was going to hand his notice in 'just like that' and lo and behold he did it last week and he finishes work this week, without a job to go to.....oh my god!! Now what's he going to do lol! Geoff got that big bonus you mentioned and he told me today he is going to have a big promotion at the end of this month, which means lots more money, which you also predicted. I will be completing on the house I am buying at the end of the month (you said I would be signing documents for property) and Andrew heard on the weekend that the guy who attacked him was officially charged last Friday and the case will be going to court soon and Andrew will have to attend (something else you saw).

All that has happened in a matter of weeks, so I can't wait to see what will happen the rest of the year lol!!

Take Care

Thank you so much for your time yesterday. It was a pleasure meeting you and I came away feeling really positive and looking forward to what the future may bring. Thank you also for the bullet points, I will keep an eye on those and let you know how things turn out. Enjoy your weekend away and I look forward to meeting with you again in the near future, maybe next time we can do more on astrological signs, as I found that really interesting! Thanks again.

Yours faithfully

Hi Jo

I just wanted to say thank you for my reading. You were spot on in describing how I have been feeling.

The reading has given me a great sense of relief!

Thank you

Deborah

Thank you, I feel quite emotional! It's been 3 years since my Mum passed and I have never heard from her despite trying so many times.

I love my Gemini man, time to let go and let him love me and take care of me. I have a new job and I love it, I work therapeutically with teens who have various issues, abuse, going through chemo, and I think I have found my way there and my boss is a woman!

Thanks you don't realise quite how much you have helped.

Much love,xxxx

Thank you, it is great, it has helped and I hope that the health part is right!

I am moving at the weekend in with my partner, and my ex is being quite difficult. I will always care for my ex but cannot forgive the past. My current partner is amazing, treats me superbly and I just wanted to stop being so mistrustful.

My health is bad, I have Crohns and am at high risk of bowel cancer and have a xray tomorrow to see if there is cancer in my small intestine.

My Mum past away from cancer, she lived in Spain with my Dad and I miss her so very much.

So, your reading was accurate and reassuring, as I hope the xray quashes my cancer fears.

Thank you so very much,
Catherine,x

Hi Jo

Thank you so much for the reading. Its really insightful and great advice - very helpful and exactly what I need.

thanks again and kind regards,

Caroline

Hi Joanna

Thanks for the reading really "spot on" especially the relationship area I have been trying to leave a stagnant marriage from March this year but seemed to get overtaken by other events which conspired to hold me back - my feeling now is it was not the right time but more likely to happen in the next couple of months!! Saturn certainly makes you look at what is not working for you.

In September I am starting a course on Spiritual Astrology a subject I have always been interested in so you were accurate when you mentioned the courses also I have alot lined up for September.

and I must not overload which I have a tendency to do!! It was all interesting and meaningful to me and I will keep in touch. By the way my dentist has me back to new again I live to "chew" another day.

Kind Regards

Carolx

Hi Joanna,

Thank you very much for my detailed reading. It is quite amazing that someone who has never met me in person could paint such an accurate image of the state of my own feelings. There's more to life than just laws of physics, that's for sure! I meditate quite often so I feel that every time.

My only question is, if I can ask, whether by relationships that your reading was telling me about, can also be taken as my relationship with myself or self love; sort of a power struggle between myself who wants to do things and myself who's pulling me back? I understand that it doesn't have to be a relationship in a romantic sense. Is that correct?

Thank you very much again and good luck with everything.
Ola
